INTRODUCTION

The Women's Financial Wellness Center – and our amazing sponsors and partners – work tirelessly to advocate for the best interests of women who are going through divorce. Thank you to all our 2019 strategic partners!

As the Women's Financial Wellness Center continues to grow, I am committed to regularly surveying our clients and annually selecting the right strategic partners to grow with us.

One of my core values is to make sure I am exceeding the expectations for my clients. The women I serve deserve to be treated with respect, kindness, and compassion. It is important to make sure I am surrounding women with leading-edge resources and tools as well as the strongest, finest, most positive people I know.

Here are the partnership levels. Be sure to watch for these symbols throughout the directory.

THANK YOU

Thank you for grabbing a copy of the 2019 resource directory!

This go-to-resource is designed to save you time, money and energy by connecting you with the finest, most positive people I know.

It has taken years to develop many of the relationships, connections and introductions listed in this directory. I hand-selected each person listed in the directory, not only for their expertise, but also because they share my passion for empowering women.

I believe it is my life's calling to help women. I also believe it takes a team – of like-minded people – to reach 20,000 in 2019. While all women are welcome, we specialize in working with women going through divorce. We are committed to helping women go from financial self-sabotage to financial self-confidence.

In the words of Kristin Armstrong, one of the best things you can do when you find yourself in a vulnerable spot is to surround yourself with the finest, most positive people you know. I am pleased to say her words of wisdom have been the foundation on which I build this amazing community of experts.

I encourage you to either save the directory electronically, print it out or request a printed copy from our office! We will be updating the directory on a quarterly basis, so be sure to check out our website for updates. If you are interested in grabbing a spot for next quarter, please email me to say . . . I am interested in being in the directory!
